

Nathalie Landry, MSc., MBA

Ms. Landry is the Director of Product Development responsible of the production of therapeutic, diagnostic and nutraceutical products, strategic planning and business development. Ms Landry joined Medicago in 2000 as Director of Strategic Development where she was responsible of contractual agreements and of the intellectual property portfolio. Prior to Medicago, Ms Landry worked for a biopharmaceutical company producing and developing anticancer compounds where she has occupied in sequence the operations management and project management. Ms Landry holds a B.Sc. in microbiology, a M.Sc. in microbiology-immunology and an MBA from Laval University.