

Dr Chantal Brunet holds a Microbiology & Immunology Ph.D. and a M.B.A. from Laval University.

She is Vice-president in Biotechnology and Life Sciences and Program Director of Seed investments in universities and research centres since 1999 at Innovatech Québec. Before joining Innovatech in 1996, she was the Production Director of a private Biotechnology firm.

Innovatech Québec is a Quebec government venture capital corporation specializing in pre-start up and start up financial assistance to technology-intensive companies. With a $150 million fund, Innovatech's investment portfolio includes over 100 companies and projects in the following fields: Information technology and telecommunications, Optics and Photonics, Biotechnology and Industrial technology.