

Kathryn Howard is the Director General, Life Sciences at Industry Canada. Prior to joining Industry Canada, Kathryn was the Director of Operations for federal/provincial/territorial justice programs at the Department of Justice. As part of a large-scale renewal effort in National Defence, she developed and managed a program to examine alternative service delivery options for more than $1B of support activities. Kathryn was the Regional Director of Human Resources at the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development during Program Review – a time of significant change. She also worked at the Treasury Board as a senior policy analyst and as a human resource manager at military bases in the Ontario region.

Kathryn holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Waterloo and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Ottawa.
