

Dr. Sabrina Wagner is co-founder and CEO of greenovation. Before company foundation in September 1999 she worked independently in Dresden as a consultant in business development and in worldwide marketing and sales for fine chemicals in PET diagnostics produced by ABX GmbH. Sabrina was Head of Export and Business Development for Apogepha GmbH in Dresden being responsible for international marketing and sales of Apogepha products as well as for all in- and out-licensing agreements for national and international marketing. In this position she developed Apogepha's national portfolio and international marketing strategies. Sabrina started her career in pharmaceutical industry in different marketing and sales positions at medac GmbH, Asche AG and Lederle GmbH. She studied biology at the university of Hamburg.