

Dr. David Spencer joined Biolex in 2001 as Chief Operating Officer and Vice-President of R&D. He began his industry career with Bayer AG 20 years ago in CNS discovery research, advancing through a variety of global leadership positions in international development and strategic marketing positions prior to leading a major business area within the Biological Products Business Unit of Bayer Corp. He received his Ph.D. in Physiological Psychology from Indiana University in Bloomington, IN in 1981.