

Dr. Philip Eppard joined Monsanto Protein Technologies in 2000 as Regulatory Affairs Lead. He is responsible for plant-made pharmaceutical regulatory approvals in the U.S. (FDA and USDA), the E.U. and Japan. He began his career with Monsanto Company in 1985. He was responsible for preclinical research, toxicology, bioequivalence and pharmacokinetic programs. He received his Ph.D. in Lactation Physiology from Cornell University in 1985.